RUSSELL B.
MARSHALL

The Principal's Message

HIGH School graduation represents the accomplishment of an important educational goal. To achieve it both you and your parents may have made sacrifices.

I offer my personal congratulations to each of you who wear the maroon and white gowns and receive a diploma from Lawrence High School. Education for you is just a beginning process. You will continue to learn at the feet of experience; through keeping informed of the progress of society by being alert to the contribution of others, and by making your own contributions to a growing and better society.

If you will live happily with other people; be realistic about setting your occupational goals—life will hold many successes for you. As members of the Class of 1953, the last class to graduate from the grand old Lawrence High Building, I give you my sincere best wishes.

Smythe Honor Roll

EVERY year two members of the senior class are chosen to have their names cast in bronze on the Henry Herbert Smythe Honor Roll. These two, a boy and a girl, are the students who in the eyes of their classmates best exemplify the qualities of Loyalty, Honor, and Service. Sylvia Robertson and Nathan Beale are this year's additions to the Roll of Honor.

SYLVIA ROBERTSON

NATHAN BEALE

SYLVIA, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Robertson of Falmouth, has received some of the highest honors available. She was selected to represent the school at Girls' State during her junior year and as D.A.R. delegate when a senior. She has been a member of the Student Council for three consecutive years and an avid enthusiast of the girls' modern dance class for four. She is an accomplished pianist and an authority on ballet. After graduating, Sylvia hopes to train for a nurses' degree at the Massachusetts General Hospital.

NATHAN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Granville Beale of Falmouth, has been very active during his high school career. He has been Vice-President of his class for the past three years and president of both the Student Council and the Travel Club. One of the top students in the senior class scholastically, Nate is a member of the National Honor Society and was awarded the Harvard Prize Book Award. He has been a member of the basketball and baseball teams and was selected to represent the class at Boys' State. He plans to enter Worcester Polytechnic Institute next fall.

Babe Ruth Award

THIS year, Marcia Maxim and Robert Lopes are the senior boy and girl who, in the judgment of their classmates, have best displayed the principles of good sportsmanship in all phases of their high school career. These two will have their names cast in bronze and added to the Babe Ruth Award plaque.

MARCIA MAXIM

ROBERT LOPES

MARCIA, daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Blake and Mr. J. Ellis Maxim, is especially outstanding in the sports department. She has been a member of the girls' basketball and softball teams for two years and a cheerleader for three, head cheerleader when a senior. Marcia was a Student Council representative and a member of the class play. She was on the Intelligencer Staff and was Co-Editor of the Laurencian. After graduating, she plans to work in the office of the Cape & Vineyard Electric Co.

ANOTHER sports lover is Robert Lopes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Lopes of North Falmouth. Bob has been captain of the baseball team for three consecutive years, playing in the outfield. He was a quarterback on the football team for two years, and a member of the Varsity Club. He was also on the basketball team in which his outstanding work was accomplished as backcourt guard. A three-letter man, Bob has proved himself invaluable to the teams, his class, and the school. After graduating he plans to join the Air Force.

Senior Class History

"HEY, get off those steps before we throw you off!" . . . so began our three years' trek through Lawrence High. The seniors continued to haze us until Initiation was over and we finally settled down to the long grind. But it wasn't all work, we contributed to the team such rugged football players as: Bob Betts, "Merry" Palmer, "Babe" Soares, Howie Pierce, John Frias, Dick Baker, Norris Eastman, and John Moniz. No one could control his excitement when we beat our greatest rival, Barnstable. We all remember the argumentation and confusion which resulted from the plans for the annual Bean Supper. Finally it was produced, however, with Johnny Pesky and Eddie Pellagrini, two well known major league baseball players, as guest speakers, accompanied by the rattle and bang of dirty dishes. In early spring we turned nautical by coming up with the idea of holding a Shipwreck Dance. Everyone enjoyed himself in the informal atmosphere of lobster pots and fish nets. Our last thought upon leaving that June was that we were at last cured of our "Sophomore-itis."

The following September we entered L.H.S. with more ease and assurance for now we were Juniors. During football season, many of us arose early to make coffee to sell and then by game-time tried to make the sugar cubes dissolve in the cold coffee.

Our first social function took place during the holiday season. In the spirit of Christmas we held a Saint Nick's Hop, which was a success not only for the good food and music but also for the unique decorations.

Next on the social agenda came the Quahog Supper. In true Cape Cod style we planned a menu which featured a typical quahog chowder and fresh homemade pies. "Never say die" ought to be our motto as blizzards and a lack of spoons and bowls caused us to postpone this project several times.

Then came our disappointment over our flat and heavy Cake Sale. Besides all this we selected and purchased our class rings. We were the first class to buy a new type of ring which was being introduced to high schools for the first time.

Though we added new players to the boys' teams, we also included Betty Correllus, Sheila Philbrick, Natalie Radcliffe, Marcia Maxim, and Mary Lou McCoy, who was elected Captain for the following year, in the girls' basketball team.

Then as the end of the year drew nigh we once again held a Shipwreck Dance, which was now becoming a tradition with our class. This one proved to be even more successful than that of the previous year.

Several members of our class were added to the ranks of the National Honor Society, while Nate Beale and Norris Eastman, Ginny Jewel and Natalie Radcliffe attended Boys' and Girls' State respectively. As a last act we elected our class officers for our most important year. They were: Norris Eastman, president; Nate Beale, vice-president; Mary Lou McCoy, secretary; Sheila Philbrick, treasurer.

Oh, the joy of returning to school and being Seniors at last! We now occupied the main room, used the front door, and took on that feeling of superiority. This was our year! How about the Sophomore Initiation—now the tables were turned and we put our evil minds to work quietly and came up with some treacherous thought for the unsuspecting Sophs.

To the football team we contributed Co-captains Dick Baker and George Soares. We were proud of the fact that Dick was elected the most outstanding member of the squad and George was chosen the most valuable player. Along with this the playing field was dedicated to "Gov" Fuller who was retiring after many long years as coach and instructor at our school.

Our class pictures taken, we were led into basketball season. On the court this year, Ken Dahl, George Lopes, Nate Beale, Bob Lopes, Arthur Hampton, Ted Fonseca, Don Schneider, and Captain Norris Eastman. Adding pep were the senior cheerleaders, the majorettes, and the members of the band.

During the year the Travel Club held many dances, card parties, and food sales to raise money for the annual Washington Trip. The class, itself, also was successful in money-making projects. Again the annual Shipwreck Dance was held, but not until the matter of who should give it, the Juniors or the Seniors, was settled. After careful thought and consideration on the part of the Student Council, the right to give it was awarded to the Seniors. Speaking of the Student Council, Marcia Maxim, "Bunny" Robertson, Norris Eastman, Marion Burchell, Jim Doukas, and Nate Beale, who was its President, were our representatives.

Our Class Play, Mother Is a Freshman, was a hilarious success. The actors, the usherettes, the prop, the make-up and all of the other committees worked hard together to make it a really worth-while project.

Class Ode

by Mary Lou McCoy

Our strong bond shall ne'er be broken
Formed in Lawrence High
Far surpassing wealth unspoken
Sealed by friendship's ties.

Memory's pages close will be
About our hearts for aye
And recall the fun and glee
Of dear old Lawrence High.

As our lives unfold before us
And the years roll by
Then shall never pass from us
Love for Lawrence High.

THIS year, more than ever, the class of '54 was well represented in all school activities. In the sports field, Junior class members of the football squad included Arthur Vidal, Frank Grundman, Bob Taylor, Sterling Geggatt, Ken Benoit, Bill Smith, Bruce MacKilligan, Ray Gessner, Carl Jenkins and Dick Carter.

Basketball seemed to be another sport in which many juniors participated. Those on the boys' team were Frank Grundman, Preston Mason, Dick Carter, Ray Gessner, and Daniel Bartolomei.

Not to forget the girls' team, junior members included Arnise Burrill, Ruth Corey, Loretta Andrade, Peggy Rogers, Barbara Rohde, and Carol Finnell.

Also, to the baseball team, the juniors contributed such players as Frank Grundman, Sterling Geggatt, Phil Stone, Daniel Bartolomei, and Peter Neilson.

Our class members of the cheering squad who helped cheer the L.H.S. teams on to victory were Harriett Bourne and Helen Long.

In a recent election, Dick Carter and Frank Grundman were elected as Co-Captains of next year's football squad.

The most important social event during the year, sponsored by the Junior Class was the traditional Snow Ball held in December. Other Friday night dances were held and successful profits were made.

An important event during the year was the arrival of the class rings. The designs of the rings were all similar, but different sized or colored stones could be ordered. They arrived just before Christmas vacation.

Among members of the Student Council were Barbara Alves, Frank Grundman, Nancy Legate, Barbara Rohde, Harriett Bourne and Judy Soares.

The Class of '54 also contributed several reporters to the staff of the Student Intelligencer. They were Elsie Texeira, Penelope DeMello, Joan Dufur, Carol Finnell, Helen Long, Judy Perry, Carol Jenkins, Barbara Rohde, Nancy Legate, and Russell Harding.

Representatives elected to Girl's State for this year were Harriett Bourne and Helen Long, with Judy Perry and Carol Finnell as alternates. Representatives elected to Boy's State were Arthur Vidal and Dick Carter.

During the last weeks of school, cheerleading try outs were held in the gym. Those Juniors who were selected as cheerleaders for their senior year are Arnise Burrill, regular, and Gail Amaral and Judy Perry as alternates.

In elections for 1954 members and officers of the student council, Arthur Vidal was elected president; Bill Smith, vice-president; Carol Finnell, secretary and Bruce MacKilligan.. Senator for 1954 is Harriett Bourne whose two-year term is carried over from last year. Representatives are Barbara Alves, (re-elected) and Danny Bartolomei.

Late in April, the Junior Class held a card party at the recreation building. Food and prizes were donated by the parents and merchants in Falmouth. Whist and Canasta were played in the main room, while Bingo was played in the lobby. Various committees were appointed to organize the party and the serving of refreshments.

At an assembly called near the end of school, the members of the girls varsity basketball team received their letters. To be eligible for these, the girls must have played in a certain number of games.

All in all, the juniors spent quite a prosperous year, but we hope that our senior year in the new high school will be an even better one.

THE Sophomore Class has been very active year. The "Class of 55" was welcomed into the high school during the traditional Sophomore Initiation week. A familiar sight around the school was a lowly sophomore with a bucket full of seniors books. The same sophomore probably had his pants rolled up to the knees wearing nylons and a very smelly onion hanging around his neck tied by a string. All in all both sophomores and seniors had a great deal of fun. The week's events were ended with a big dance at the recreation building where many sophomores were called upon to do a performance of one kind or another.

A very successful Korean Relief Drive was sponsored by the class during the month of December. This drive was inspired by a letter received from Chaplain Milton Berg, a resident of Falmouth who is now serving in war-torn Korea. In this letter Chaplain Berg told of the very great necessity for clothing among the Korean children and gave a list of young orphans and their specific needs. All together the class collected twelve full cartons full of the much needed winter and summer clothes. The Sophomore class had some very grateful support from the town's merchants. The local stores which contributed articles were Malchman's Department Store and the Ten Acre. The class greatly appreciated their help. The committee who helped to make the drive a great success was constituted of Maureen Tracy, Lucy Rose, Peggy Hughes, Marlene Zlebacic, Gail Collins, Raymond Tow, Bob York, Marvin Thompson, and Herbert Weeks.

The main event of this busy year was the Seventh Annual Bean Supper, which was a very great success both socially and financially. It was held on Saturday, April 11, at the Village School cafeteria. Beans, hot dogs, coleslaw, potato salad, a big variety of homemade pies, rolls and coffee were served by the boys of the class. The entertainment for the supper was put on by the class themselves and was centered around the musical and fabulous Gay Nineties era. The show was made up of two very comical and typical plays of those years. The plays were "Ten Barrooms in One Night" a quite different version of the very familiar "Ten Night in a Barroom" and "The Great Bottleneck Diamond" or "The Villanous Shah of Shush" a real old melodrama. Also in the show was a pantomime, "Who Purloined the Bustle," a real, typical barbershop quartet, two girls' quartets and three recitations, "She Was Somebody's Mother," "Curfew Must Not Ring Tonight," and "The Drunkard Maker." All were of the old tear-jerking type and were read extremely well. The closing number of the show was a Flora Dora Sextet featuring a chorus of six boys dressed as the Gay Nineties type of women. This act brought down the house. It was quite a surprise to see the more bashful boys of the class dressed like women and romping hilariously across the stage.

The Sophomores have been active in various other school activities. For instance Pat Romiza, Carol Fonseca, and Judy McAdams have lent their talents to promoting better school spirit when they joined the cheerleader's squad.

Pat Romiza and Ruth Young were the managers of the girls' basketball team and received their letters along with Carol Hunziker, who was elected co-captain of next year's team.

The members of the class who have served on the Student Council are Judy McAdams, a Senator, and Carol Hunziker and Judy Powers as Representatives. They attended the spring and fall conventions with other members of the council.

Student Intelligencer

OH, not another editorial?? Deadlines Monday 12 noon!! And I want copy. Lead! Oh, what can I cover for the lead?? Put a 3/34 (3 columns, 34 print) head on that story!! Sure I guess so?? Apples, please! please!! An apple from every staff member. No, we're not crazy, this is just some of the newspaper shop talk in L.H.S. Again the Student Intelligencer waves goodbye to another successful year as L.H.S.'s official school newspaper.

The efficient senior editors and staff started right to work in September, writing copy, setting up the paper, and proof reading it. The editors were:

Editor-in Chief	Jim Doukas
Associate Editors	Cynnie Carragher Helen Peters
Feature Editor	Eva Blake

Mr. Davis agreed to be the advisor for the paper until Mr. Wasseth arrived and was ready to take over the job.

The senior editors were replaced in January by juniors. The reason for doing this was that the seniors had so many activities and studies (we might add). The juniors will take the job over next year, so with the seniors' assistance this year, they of course, will all be veterans.

When we said this year has been a successful one, we were not fooling for our beloved paper won top honors in the Columbia Scholastic Press Conference. Mostly responsible for this honor, were the four senior editors, who toiled, labored, and carried the ball and chain most of the way.

The senior staff sadly waves goodbye to the fun and work it took to produce a page in our benevolent Falmouth Enterprise.

Washington Trip

SATURDAY, APRIL 18

At 8:00 a.m. sharp, twenty-six of us gathered at L.H.S. impatiently awaiting the bus that was to take us to Providence, the first leg of our long-anticipated journey to Washington, D. C. Finally the bus arrived and we all piled in, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Allietta, our chaperones, who appeared to be just as excited as we were. Mr. Marshall, too, "hitched" a ride, and was more surprised than anyone else when he proved to be our guide throughout the trip.

Upon arriving in Providence, we boarded a train for New York and the Hotel Piccadilly. After getting settled in the hotel and eating supper, we braved the rain storm and went to NBC and CBS, Radio - T.V. stations, where we sat in on "This Is Show Business", guest-starring Eva Gabor. We returned to the hotel and, after surviving a few amusing episodes, finally went to bed.

SUNDAY, APRIL 19

About 5:30 a.m., the majority of us attended mass at the St. Patrick's Cathedral, which amazed us with its great size and beauty. Then we boarded another bus and met our driver, Dick, who was to be with us for the remainder of the trip, and who proved to be a true friend and advisor.

When we arrived in Pennsylvania, we visited the Betsy Ross House, Independence Hall, and Valley Forge. We stayed at the Yorktowne Hotel this evening and were delighted to discover that most of us had television sets in our rooms. Need we say that we all spent a very enjoyable evening?

MONDAY, APRIL 20

Another morning, another bus ride, and we arrived in Virginia where we visited the now famous Gettysburg Fort. After eating at the Francis Scott Key Hotel and buying multitudes of souvenirs, we were off to the Lee Jackson Hotel which obviously hadn't been inhabited since 1919. After browsing around in this quaint little building for about twenty minutes, we proceeded to the Blue Ridge Motel where we were to spend the night. This evening we went to the Endless Caverns and then retired early to catch up on some much needed sleep.

TUESDAY, APRIL 21

After more sight-seeing in Virginia, we once again boarded the bus and, at about noon, arrived at long last in Washington, D. C. After lunch we visited Mount Vernon and Arlington National Cemetery where we took pictures of the guards at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 22

Our first trip today was to the Bureau of Printing and Engraving, and we then went to the Lincoln and Jefferson Memorials, the Treasury Department, the Masonic National Memorial, and the Capitol. Here we saw the Senate in session and had lunch in the Supreme Court Cafeteria. After lunch we visited the Archives Building and the F.B.I. In the evening many of us went night-clubbing at the Royal Casino.

THURSDAY, APRIL 23

This morning, after being permitted to sleep an hour later than usual, we visited Annapolis, where we all spent a very interesting time. After lunch we climbed the Washington Monument and then proceeded to the Smithsonian Institute. At the Ambassador Hotel we closed our thoroughly enjoyable day with a swim in the indoor pool.

Today we headed back to New York and, after stopping at the beautiful Franciscan Monastery, arrived in the "big city" at about 4:00 p.m. Here we said good-bye to our driver, Dick, and checked in at the Piccadilly. That night we went to Radio City Music Hall and the Rockefeller Center observatory. Some of us will never forget seeing Eddie Fisher that night.

SUNDAY, APRIL 25

This morning, although four of the more energetic girls went shopping, most of us stayed in our hotel rooms to rest after our hectic week. At 12:00 noon we were on our way to Grand Central Station and traveled back to Falmouth much faster than we made the trip to Washington.

Without exception, we all had a wonderful time and learned a great deal while doing so. At this time we wish to thank Mr. and Mrs. Allietta for chaperoning our trip, and sincerely hope that they enjoyed it as much as we did.

Second row: M. Pacheco, S. Philbrick, D. Souza, N. Radcliffe, D. Oliver, M. Watson, D. Schneider, C. Hendricks, M. Watson.
Third row: M. Maxim, B. D'Aguiar, J. Amaral, M. Armstrong, B. McLane, J. Perry, N. Eastman, J. Razinha, J. Cassidy.

Travel Club

THIS year the Travel Club has been very successful. It has held many dances and food sales. The members sold cokes at the Town Meeting and fudge and cokes at the Barber Shop Quartet convention. Although they got off to a slow start, with the help of many of the parents the Travel Club made four hundred dollars at a big whist party at the Recreation Building and cleared one hundred dollars on a smaller party at the East Falmouth Grammar School. The final tabulation showed that there were one thousand fifty-two dollars in the treasury.

At the beginning of the year there were forty-five members in the Travel Club. Nearly half of the members dropped out as the year passed until there were only twenty-five members left at the time of the Washington Trip.

The members of the club had elected Colonel William Tow as their adviser. Throughout the year, Colonel Tow has helped the Travel Club and encouraged them about the Washington Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. George Allietta were chosen to chaperon the eventful trip to our nation's Capitol. Mr. Marshall and Mr. Allietta attended most of the last meetings of the Travel Club to iron out any difficulties that might have arisen. The Travel Club owes much to Mr. Marshall who made all of the arrangements for the trip.

The officers who were elected by the members of the Travel Club were Nathan Beale, president; Nancy Pimental, secretary; and George Lopes, treasurer.

First row l. to r.: U. Tassinari, advisor; J. Doukas, treasurer; N. Beale, president; M. Burchell, secretary; F. Grundman, vice-president; M. Maxim.

Second row: N. Legate, J. Irving, J. DeMello, N. Eastman, J. Powers, J. McAdams.

Third row: S. Lawrence, C. Hunziker, S. Robertson, J. Soares, B. Rhode.

Student Council

THE Student Council, during the years nineteen hundred fifty-two and fifty-three, proved to be very helpful to everyone. The group grew rapidly in both size and popularity under the wise guidance of Mr. Tassinari, until today everyone is proud of it.

It has been an exceptionally active organization, benefiting both itself and the student body. At least two activities were continued this year because they had proved successful previously. An activity bus was sponsored to carry students to football games with a fee so low that everyone could benefit, and a smoking area was formed and supervised by Council members as was the lunchroom.

The council also sponsored other activities which seemed even more important because they strengthened the relationship between teacher and pupil. At Christmas they sponsored a decorating contest, with the cooperation of the art department, which proved quite successful. When March rolled around they once again held Good Government Day, which was exceptionally well planned. This year the Council made it possible for elections to be held in which students of Lawrence High School were able to take over the town offices of Selectmen, Police Chief, and Fire Chief, as well as the position of the Superintendent, the Principal, their secretaries, the Guidance Director, and the teachers.

The Council attended both the fall and spring conventions held in Somerset and Attleboro respectively, and brought back many new ideas obtained from the council of other schools. A food sale was held on May 2 to raise money to buy pins for the members of the Council who were serving their last term.

This year no classes were interrupted because of meetings. All meetings were held during Activity Period and special meetings were held in the evening.

Glee Club

PROBABLY no other organization is so popular among the students of Lawrence High as the High School Mixed Glee Club. Under the direction of Mr. Conrad Rosello, this musical group meet often to harmonize on folk ballads, old spirituals, and, occasionally popular numbers, and became so efficient that they sang in the annual Spring Concert held at the Falmouth Recreation Building on May 8, 1953. Three numbers were chosen for this big event,

"One World," "Deep River," and "The Lord's Prayer." Special reference should be given to talented Nancy Pimental who sang the solo for "One World," and to the boys' fine rendition of the solo part of "Deep River."

Both the Glee Club and the other members of the school wish to give Mr. Rosello special recognition and many thanks for making this year's Glee Club all that it has been.

Girls' Ensemble

SOMETHING new, started this year by the music supervisor, consisting of ten students who have proved very active during the school term.

This group has sung at the USO, the Otis Service Club, Odd Fellows, and the Christmas

Talent Show. The Ensemble also provided much of the music heard over the WOCB radio broadcast, and appeared in the annual Spring Concert held last May.

Congratulations on the excellent work, girls!

As baseball season came and went, troubles were just beginning for us. We thought the problems of the Lawrencian would never end. "Seniors, get those informal shots in, now!" But this wasn't the only literary problem, assignments for the Student Intelligencer, which won first prize in a school newspaper contest, were never in on time and no one could ever find any "Apples." Then the problems of Graduation and Class Day commenced. As our final year at L.H.S. drew to a close we elected various Seniors to receive awards. Nate Beale and Sylvia Robertson, who was our D.A.R. representative, had their names added to the Smythe Honor Roll; Marcia Maxim and Bob Lopes won the Babe Ruth Sportsmanship Award. Our final social fling, the Senior Prom, ended our last year in high school with a bang, not unusual for us.

As our school life at Lawrence High School nears completion, we cannot determine what the future holds in store for us. Many of our class will go to college, into nursing, or into business. Some will enter the Armed Forces, as a part of the class of 1953 has already done. But whatever we may do, wherever we may go, let us face the world with determination and steadfastness of purpose. L.H.S. has prepared us to face the future. Let us take up the challenge!

Band and Orchestra

THE Lawrence High School Band is a familiar sight to both the students and the townspeople of Falmouth. It was originated approximately eight years ago by Miss Olive Cahoon, but since that time, it has had many different directors, the latest of which is Mr. Conrad Rosello. Hats off to him for the fine job he has done with the band!

The organization has put on many different functions to raise funds to increase the efficiency of the music department. Recently the band members and majorettes purchased new uniforms from this money, in the school colors, maroon and white.

A great deal of work was put into the band by both the director and the members themselves. Each Tuesday and Thursday mornings practice was held in the Junior High School auditorium. When good weather arrived, the band could be seen marching on the grounds outside the school.

Practicing with the band were five majorettes, who spent much of their time and energy perfecting their twirling and strutting. The head majorettes were the two senior girls on the squad, "Babe" Burchell and Edith Jennings, who was also the president of the band.

We wish to extend our thanks to the majorettes and the band for their previous years of entertainment and wish them luck in the years to come.

Orchestra

ALTHOUGH consisting of a smaller number of performers than the band, the School Orchestra is an important addition to the high school curriculum. Under the careful guidance of our music instructor, Mr. Conrad Rosello, the group played once again at the annual Spring Concert held at the Falmouth Recreation Building on May 8, 1953. The orchestra also took part in the Music Festival held this spring, a program which included the orchestras from all the schools on the Cape.

This year a string quintet composed of Village School students played with the Girls' Ensemble at the radio broadcast over Station WOCB in West Yarmouth. Carol Hennessy, Judy Carlson, Jerold Reynolds, and Jean Woodcock played violins and Lexine Archer the cello. Clifford O'Connell accompanied them on the piano. Also, next year's Village School Orchestra and Band have been combined into a club with Robert Clifton as president, Philip Lopes, vice-president, and George Pinto, secretary. Student conductors will lead this group and also the High School Glee Club, Orchestra, Band, and Girls' Ensemble.

Next year there will be two music supervisors and two completely separate music departments, one for the high school and one for the grammar school. This new system will enable them to accomplish more and will make possible a more varied program. They also plan to perform in festivals in other cities.

At this time we wish to thank the Trysail Choral Group for their helpfulness and generosity in donating so much towards the development of the music department of our schools and in the purchasing of new uniforms for both the Lawrence High and Village School musical groups.

Next year, too, the school department hopes to be able to provide for all students musical classes in the appreciation of music. There will also be special choral and instrumental classes for these students especially interested in these fields of music.

It is inevitable that with the added opportunities to be offered in the following year, the musical groups will expand in both size and quality. Under the expert guidance of Mr. Conrad Rosello they could hardly do otherwise.

Varsity Club

THE Lawrence High School Varsity Club has had a very successful year. The officers were elected in September.

President	George "Babe" Soares
Vice President	Frank Grundman
Secretary	Marcia Maxim
Treasurer	George Lopes

These officers along with the other members have held a series of social functions. They sponsored every football rally and provided various surprising entertainments.

In January they held a very profitable dance which added considerably to their treasury. For entertainment they had the high school faculty singing and putting on skits.

From their treasury the Varsity Club has bought trophies for football, basketball, and baseball. These trophies have only been awarded these last two years. In football three trophies are given each year;

1. Most Outstanding Player
2. Most Valuable Player
3. Most Promising Sophomore

In basketball two trophies are given:

1. Best Foul Shot
2. Most Valuable Player

Baseball too is represented by two awards;

1. Best Hitter
2. Most Valuable Player

These trophies have encouraged more boys to go out for these sports and have created better all around sportsmanship.

During the football season these boys and the four Senior Cheerleaders treated the opposing teams to refreshments after the games. This displayed good sportsmanship and friendliness.

Mr. Kinney, the club adviser, has helped them immensely and is behind them all the way.

Although the L.H.S. Varsity Club is still in its prime it is becoming very substantial and worthwhile.

Class Play

THIS year the Senior class presented "Mother is a Freshman" by Rapheal David Blau. The production was from beginning to end a rollicking success and was well enjoyed by all who attended the performances.

"Mother is a Freshman" is the story of an attractive mother, Abigail Fortitude Abbott, who goes to college with her daughter, Susan. Upon entering college mother meets much opposition in the form of the Dean who feels that a mother who comes to college is up to no good. The story becomes very involved and highly complex when mother falls in love with the handsome zoology professor, Professor Michaels, on whom Susan has a passionate crush. Things come to a head when Susan walks in before the big dance to find her mother in the arms of the professor. The whole incident comes to the attention of the Dean who seizes this opportunity to end Abigail's term in college. However, all's well that ends well as mother gets her man and Susan turns her affections in another direction. The ever present Bo-Bo provides many laughs as he goes in quest of Susan's affections and Susan's pals also provide much merry enjoyment.

Those in the cast were Marcia Maxim as Abigail, Cynthia Carragher as Susan, Bill Alley as Professor Michaels, Norris Eastman as the Dean, and Duke Schneider as Bo-Bo.

Others in the cast were Babe Burchell, Helen Peters, Natalie Radcliffe, Eleanor Enos, Edith Jennings, Arthur Hampton, Jerry Cassidy, George Lopes, Sylvia Robertson, and Sheila Philbrick. Prompters were Janet Perry and Mary Louise Armstrong.

LAWRENCE HIGH WINS OPENER AGAINST MIDDLEBORO, 13-6

The L.H.S. gridmen started the season in excellent fashion defeating a strong Middleboro eleven 13-6. Bobby Lopes threw a T.D. pass to Dick Baker in the first quarter, and plunged over himself in the fourth. Dick Carter and Ralph Taylor were outstanding in the line. Falmouth's defense was especially good against Middleboro.

MAROON AND WHITE ROMP OVER PROVINCETOWN, 40-13

The Marauders strode to their second win by thumping Provincetown by a score of 40-13. Bob Betts, a guard converted into a backfield man, scored two touchdowns and ran for two extra points. Bobby Lopes was also good for two T.D.'s while Merry Palmer and Jerry Cardoza broke into the scoring column with one T.D. apiece.

LAWRENCE FEELS FIRST LOSS AS STAHURA STARS FOR BOURNE, 0-24

L.H.S. suffered its first defeat of the season to a mighty Bourne team. Handicapped with injuries the valiant Lawrence team strove to gain a foothold, but were virtually smothered by Stahura and company. The passing attack for L.H.S. was ruined completely as the game was nearly rained out.

FALMOUTH DROPS SECOND GAME, LOSES TO SOMERSET HIGH, 14-6

L.H.S. took it on the chin for the second straight time as they were defeated by Somerset 14-6. A much quicker and faster Somerset team never let go of their early lead over L.H.S. Dick Baker was the only Lawrencian to hit paydirt on a pass from Bobby Lopes. Norris Eastman was outstanding in the line and Frank Grundman starred in the backfield.

FALMOUTH STARTS TO RISE; DROPS FAVORED DARTMOUTH, 19-12

L.H.S. emerged as the winner in a 19-12 thriller at Dartmouth Memorial Field, in Dartmouth. Passes from quarterback Bob Lopes to Dick Baker and George Soares accounted for two T.D.'s, while Frank Grundman plunged across the line for the third. The game was a bitter and hard fought contest all the way. Outstanding in the backfield were Merry Palmer and Bob Lopes.

L.H.S. SNOWED UNDER, 26-0 BY STRONG WAREHAM TEAM

The Maroon and White dropped its third game of the season to an overwhelming Wareham eleven. The strong Wareham line was a big factor in the defeat. Outstanding for Falmouth, in yards gained were Frank Grundman and Arthur Vidal, while in the line Ken Benoit showed good defensive prowess.

FAIRHAVEN WINS OVER FADING LAWRENCE TEAM, 19-0

The 2000 fans present for the dedication of "Gov" Fuller Field were somewhat disappointed at the final outcome of the game, but Falmouth's loss was primarily due to the number of penalties against them. Frank Grundman was again outstanding in the backfield as defensive and offensive halfback. Tackle Ralph Taylor was outstanding in the line.

L.H.S. SUFFERS FIFTH DEFEAT OF SEASON AT BARNSTABLE, 25-8

L.H.S. couldn't seem to get going against the tight Barnstable defense as Barnstable rolled over them 25-8. Falmouth scored early in the game but couldn't seem to gain a foothold and Barnstable added score after score. Sophomore halfback Jim Lyons showed outstanding running ability for Falmouth.

Cheerleaders

THIS year's basketball letters will be awarded Maxim, head cheerleader, Ann Casiles and Nat Radcliffe, regulars and Mary Louise Armstrong, alternate; all of whom were seniors. Juniors were Harriett Bourne and Helen Long. The three girls contributed by the Sophomore class were Carol Fonseca and Pat Romiza with Judy McAdams as alternate.

Among their many activities, the cheerleaders organized the weekly rallies before the football games and the bonfire and conga line preceding the big Barnstable game. During basketball games, they accompanied the boys regularly and helped cheer them on to victory.

The Senior cheerleaders were members of the Varsity Club, and they, along with the rest of the girls put on several apron and food sales.

Throughout the years, the good showings made at the games by the cheerleaders, and their pep and vigor, was only accomplished through their many hours of practice. Thanks is due to each one of them from all the members of L.H.S.

Boys' Basketball

AS football season drew to a close the thuds of the basketball could again be heard in the gym as once again the Maroon Marauders took to the hardwood court. The team had its share of ups and downs but did well against such a tough schedule. Due to the abolishment of the Cape Cod League the Douthart men went above their heads to play larger schools such as Fairhaven, New Bedford and Taunton. Even with such large odds against them the warriors of Falmouth went down fighting.

The statistics look cold but they do not tell the whole story. The team played exceptional good ball against the bigger clubs but fell down when they went against the weaker clubs. The ball club has one boast to brag about, which was their two wins over Barnstable. This was enough to make a good season.

The highlight of the season was as always the Cape Cod Tournament. In the first game they outran an overconfident Yarmouth club, who were picked to win the tournament. But alas, Falmouth was again jinxed by a weaker Bourne team to be knocked out of the race.

The boys deserve a lot of credit for a job well done. They have lost some games but they had more fun than any other team in Lawrence High and what are sports but recreation.

Girls' Basketball

THIS year's basketball letters will be awarded to the following seniors' Sheila Philbrick, Marcia Maxim, Barbara Tavares, Betty Correllus, and captain Mary Lou McCoy. Juniors who will receive their letters are Ruth Corey, Loretta Andrade, Carol Finnell, Arnise Burrill, and Barbara Rohde. Carol Hunziker, Pat Romiza, and Ruth Young are the sophomores who are receiving their letters. Sylvia Lawrence, a freshman, will also receive her letter.

One of the requirements to be met in order to receive a letter in athletics is that one must play the equivalent of three games during one season for the varsity team.

YARMOUTH vs. FALMOUTH

The first game was lost to Yarmouth by a big margin, 56-9. High scorer was Sheila Philbrick.

WAREHAM vs. FALMOUTH

In the next game the stronger team, Wareham, won, 66-42. It was a good game with the high scorer, Sheila Philbrick, tossing in 17 points. Ruth Corey came in second with 15 points.

BOURNE vs. FALMOUTH

Falmouth took a trip to Bourne and lost, 57-14. Ruth Corey was high scorer.

BADMINTON

A comparatively new sport to the L.H.S.'ers is badminton. Co-educational badminton has been started after school hours under the supervision of Miss Heverly and Mr. Mills. Approximately twenty students have come out for this sport.

Second row: Mr. Wasseth, B. Crocker, J. Rose, G. Peters, D. Bartolomei, S. Geggatt, B. Barstow, F. Grundman, B. Grew, Coach Allietta.

Baseball

NINETEEN eligible members who are to form the Lawrence High baseball squad received uniforms on April 10, 1953. In accordance to the breakdown, Sterling Geggatt, Bobby Lopes, George Peters and Jim Souza are the pitchers. John Rose and John Gomes are the catchers; Merry Palmer, Nelson Baptiste, Danny Bartolomei, Peter Neilson and Tommy Dougherty are the infielders; Bruce Barstow, Jimmy Lyons, Reggie Andrade, and Tommy Andrews are the outfielders.

Practice sessions are being held at "Gov" Fuller field, and Coach Allietta is working his charges in preparation for the opening game with Yarmouth, and he feels optimistic toward the outcome of the season.
